Approval of Agenda

Motion was made to approve the agenda by Mr. Strong, seconded by Ms. Williams. Motion passed.

Public Input

Kelley May invited the board to participate in the Halloween Carnival on October 30th at 6 p.m.

Maintenance Report

Mr. Hager discussed a problem with the pine trees in the courtyard. The roots are starting to grow towards the building and above ground. He would like to see them removed before they caused damage to the building. He said that they will be blowing out sprinklers in the next few days.

SRO Report

No report.

Principal Report

Ms. Winters was unable to attend, but she did submit the report to the board on the IRI's and how Lindy Ross students are doing.

Superintendent Report

Ms. Holden reported that we are have received less money from the state for special distributions than originally planned. She feels we will be okay if the state doesn't do any of the holdbacks. She stated that the state has required 18 different reports in the last month which has been keeping the office busy. There will be a district volleyball game, Thursday, October 16th. The school was able to purchase jackets for all the staff along with a donation from Kent Holden.

Consent Agenda

Motion was made to accept the consent agenda by Mr. Strong, seconded by Ms. Williams. Motion passed.

Board Training

They discussed having a training in the spring for the board in lieu of going to the ISBA training in Coeur d'Alene.

Tree Removal

Motion was made to approve the removal of two trees in the courtyard by Mr. Strong seconded by Ms. Williams. Motion passed.

Upgrade Fire Alarm System

No new bids have been received yet for the fire alarm system.

Motion was made to table until next month by Mr. Strong, seconded by Ms. Williams. Motion passed.

Van Driver Requirements

Motion was made to approve the van driver requirement policy and the driver's ed policy by Mr. Strong, seconded by Ms. Williams. Motion passed.
